Jason Wilson

The Peacemaker's Chauffeur

This singer/keyboardist has been hailed as a reggae ambassador, opening doors with his band Tabarruk, with tributes to his hero Jackie Mittoo, and shows featuring the Jamaica to Toronto project. But Wilson is also a published First World War historian, and this excellent two-CD set combines his historical perspective and inventive arrangements on thoughtful, genre-stretching songs about human conflict. His guests, including legendary guitarist Ernest Ranglin and saxophonist Pee Wee Ellis, attest to his lofty musical stature.
